

Biobased for Growth - Partnering for Radical Innovation

Stakeholders Conference: Public Private Partnership (PPP) on biobased industries

10 September 2012
Renaissance Hotel, Rue du Parnasse 19, Brussels
13.30 – 19.00 h

Objectives

1. Visibility – inform a wider group of industrial stakeholders about the emergence of a PPP on biobased industries
2. Consultation – get feedback and reactions from participants on the draft strategic research and innovation agenda before it's finalised

Programme

13:30 - 14:00 Registration

Building the post-petroleum society with biobased industries

Keynote speeches

- Challenges and opportunities across the biobased value chain
Ricardo Arjona - General Director of Abengoa Bioenergia Nuevas Tecnologias
 - A Member State view on how to support biobased industries development in Europe
Clemens Neumann - head of the Bio-based Economy section at the German Agricultural Ministry
 - Emerging PPP on biobased industries, vision, scope and next steps
Marco Mensink / Kare Riis Nielsen – the Biobased Industries PPP
 - Environmental, Social and Economic Impacts of a PPP on Biobased Industries
Marieke Harteveld – Ecofys
-

15:00 - 15:30 Questions & Answers

15:30 - 16:00 Coffee Break

16:00 - 17:00 Strategic Innovation & Research Agenda for a PPP on biobased industries - Stakeholders consultation

- Various stakeholders along the biobased value-chain will present their views on the PPP and R&I priorities for the sector they represent:
 - Agriculture and breeding – COPA COGECA
 - Agro-Food industry – Yvon Le Henaff, ARD
 - Forestry, pulp and paper industries – Heikki Ilvespaa, UPM
 - Chemicals – Catia Bastioli, Novamont
 - Biofuels and chemicals – Ulrich Kettling, Clariant
 - Connecting the dots for building a solid SIRA, Annita Westenbroek – Dutch Biorefinery Cluster
-

17:00 - 18:00 Feedback and questions

18:00 - 19:00 Cocktail Reception
